In Memory of Marcus Leatherdale 1952-2022

Photograph of Marcus Leatherdale

Marcus Leatherdale's death brings great sadness. As we remember his exceptional talent and iconic photographs that so eloquently captured a magical era, we mourn the loss of a gifted artist and friend.

Holland Carter wrote of Leatherdale's work: "His photographs were a celebration of why we moved to New York in the first place which was to be in the midst of that kind of creativity and boundary pushing in terms of gender and sexuality. Not that we thought of it that way or spoke in those terms. Marcus photographed the best of who we were, these idealized versions."
